ABOUT THE NOOHRA FOUNDATION

The Noohra Foundation is a non profit, non sectarian, spritual educational organization. This unique teaching center was founded September 2, 1970 in San Antonio, Texas by Dr. Rocco A. Errico. It currently maintains its facilities in Smyrna, Georgia The Foundation is dedicated to helping people of all faiths understand the Bible from a Near Eastern Aramaic perspective. It was established to show an alternate route one may take in biblical studies. The name Noohra is an Aramaic word meaning Light and enlightenment.

The Noohra Foundation presents direct modern English translations of ancient Aramaic biblical texts with their rich, sociological Semitic customs and traditions. This research work clarifies obscure and misunderstood scriptural passages. It further strengthens an affirmative image of God, humanity, the world and the universe. This teaching is not restricted to any particular denominational biblical interpretation. It provides a broader understanding of Scripture and a practical application for modern living. The Aramaic approach is direct and uncomplicated.

BOOKS BY DR. ERRICO

✪ NEW ITEM ✪ SODOM AND GOMORRAH: What Really Happened	$9.95 (7.96)
---	---------------

A fresh new look at one of the most famous bible stories, often misinterpreted as a tale about homosexuality. Dr. Errico retells the narrative by taking the reader into the ancient Near Eastern world, language and culture. Whether one takes the narrative as myth or history, it needs to be seen through ancient Near Eastern eyes. Only then can we comprehend what really took place in this calamitous episode. This brief but enlightening book is presented in story form. In portraying the Near Eastern biblical customs and manners, it clarifies the writer's intent and provides answers to many of the questions regarding the true message of Sodom and Gomorrah.

AND THERE WAS LIGHT	$19.95 (15.96)
--------------------------------------	-----------------

Like it's predecessor, Let There Be Light, this book takes us through the heart of the Hebrew Bible and New Testament by working with Aramaic—the language spoken by the Patriarchs, Jesus, his apostles and their contemporaries. With his knowledge of the customs, idioms, psychology, symbolism and philosophy of Semitic peoples, Dr. Errico unlocks puzzling biblical passages. Suddenly the Bible becomes clearer and more relevant for Western readers. The teaching ministry and parables of Jesus come alive as never before. Topics include: Rabbi Eshoa-Jesus—An Aramaic Speaking Shemite, Jesus' Parables (Dr. Errico's translation), The 23rd Psalm, The Book of Revelation.

LET THERE BE LIGHT: The Seven Keys	$17.95 (14.36)
---	-----------------

The Bible is more than anything else a Middle Eastern account of spiritual events and teachings. In his seminal work, Dr. Errico builds a bridge between Western ways of understanding and Middle Eastern social realities that are embedded in the Bible. He helps us see the Bible through Semitic, Aramaic eyes. Bypassing doctrinal creeds and rigid interpretations, he judiciously corrects numerous errors and misleading literal translations that have caused confusion for centuries. This book equips the reader with seven key insights to understand the allusions, parables, and teachings of the Bible, opening the door to the ancient Aramaic world from which the Bible emerged.

THE MYSTERIES OF CREATION: The Genesis Story	$16.95 (13.56)
---	-----------------

Dr. Errico uses his own direct translation from the Aramaic-Peshitta text of Genesis 1:1-31 and 2:1-3 as a basis for a challenging new look at the processes, revelations, and mysteries of the primal Creation account. He discusses the Semitic meaning, names, and theories of the origin of God and "its" means of creating the world. Where appropriate, Dr. Errico borrows insights from the world of both quantum physics and Biblical scholarship. He shows readers that behind the material appearance of the world operates a sacred Intelligence (called Elohim) and that all Creation is a meaningful representation of the creative acts of this primal deity.

THE MESSAGE OF MATTHEW: An Annotated Parallel Aramaic-English Gospel of Matthew $24.95 (19.96)

Here we see Dr. Errico at work with a classic text from the New Testament, exhibiting his inimitable blend of rigorous scholarship and intuitive interpretation to great advantage. Dr. Errico's line-by-line translation runs on opposite pages to the original Aramaic as the book provides hundreds of footnotes clarifying cultural, political, and theological points raised in the translation. His intention is to carry the reader directly into the Semitic-Aramaic world in which this text originates and still lives. The simplicity, directness, and typical Eastern transparency and manner of delivery become evident when one reads the text of this "Shemitic dialect."

SETTING A TRAP FOR GOD: The Aramaic Prayer of Jesus $12.95 (10.36)

A revised and expanded version of Dr. Errico's most popular volume—his provocative re-translation (with commentary) of the Lord's Prayer. In Dr. Errico's fresh translation directly from the original Aramaic source, he interprets the prayer in terms of eight attunements that adjust us to spiritual forces in and around us, which is precisely how Jesus taught his disciples to tune in to the inexhaustible power of the Heavenly Father. "Prayer is not so much telling God what you want, but listening to what God would tell us," says Dr. Errico.

THE SYRIAN CHRIST by Abraham M. Rihbany (Introduction by Dr. Errico) $19.95 (15.96)

In what has been passed down to us about Jesus' life, there is not a single detail that is not in total conformity with the language and mode of thinking of the Near East—a culture completely different from our own. In this book we travel with the author, a lebanese Christian born in 1869, back into this vanished biblical world. He experienced it first-hand, since living conditions during his boyhood were still identical with those of Jesus' time. When he tells us about the domestic life of his family and the world of Syrian shepherds and farmers, the biblical world comes to life—in short, Rihbany immerses us in this ancient world, and we see Jesus the man in his own Near Eastern culture. This powerful and warmhearted book will delight the reader with its simplicity of narrative and with its insight into the world of the Near East.

ORIGIN OF SATAN $24.95 (19.96)

Some ministers, biblical scholars/teachers, and others declare and teach that the Bible clearly states that an evil character, known as Satan or Lucifer, does exist and creates havoc in the world. These authorities claim they can point to four specific passages of Scripture that reveal the origin of Lucifer, the archangel of darkness menacing our world, and the so called doctrine of "Fallen Angels." In the Old Testament there are two major prophets' oracles the are used to prove that Satan exists, and in the New Testament another two sources are St. Peter's second epistle, and the book of the Revelation. Dr Errico, from the Aramaic language, Scriptures, and culture, identifies and clarifies these four passages and in simple and non-theological terms, reveals the original meaning of the passages on the "Origin of Satan."

POWER OF THE WORD $19.95 (15.96)

The mystery and mysticism of "the word." A word, all by itself, has its own power and soul. When we utter a word we set up vibrations. The printed word has no power, but it provokes images.

SELF-COMPASSION $44.95 (35.96)

Self-compassion is the key (the root) to love and the remedy for all of our ills. We have to start with self-compassion before we can be compassionate to another being. Self-hatred may motivate altruistic deeds.

THE SEVEN KEYS BASIC BIBLE COURSE $49.95 (39.96)

In 1972 Dr. Errico was inspired with the vision of the seven basic biblical keys which enable anyone to unlock the many mysteries of Scripture: 1) The Aramaic language. 2) Idioms. 3) Near Eastern Mysticism - the Metaphysics of the Bible. 4) Near Eastern Culture - customs and manners. 5) Near Eastern Psychology. 6) Symbolism. 7) Amplification. The 7 Keys bring clarity to obscure and difficult passages of the Bible.

YE ARE GODS $24.95 (19.96)

What did the psalmist and Jesus refer to when they said, "Ye are gods, the sons of the Most High?" Dr. Errico explores the Aramaic and Hebrew meanings of the term "God." What does it mean to be gods? What does it mean to be sons of God? Powerful talks on trans-personal and transcendental living.

DR. ERRICO DVDS

THE ARAMAIC PRAYER OF JESUS (2 DVD SET) $19.95 (15.96)

In this special and unique series, you will learn to say the Lord's Prayer in Jesus' own language, Aramaic. Using his own translation from the Aramaic language, Dr. Errico takes you through the prayer word by word and line by line, with the Aramaic words transliterated on display cards, enabling you to see as well as hear the words. Additionally, Dr. Errico delves into the meaning of each line of the prayer, bringing fresh insight and a deeper and richer understanding of these famous words of Jesus. Even those not interested in learning to speak the Lord's Prayer in Aramaic will find great value in this part of the teachings.

AFTER THE RESURRECTION $19.95 (15.96)

In this special seminar Dr. Errico sheds a different light on what really took place after the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth. Slowly but surely the simple and direct teaching of Jesus morphed into something more than what our Lord's original joyful message taught. Beginning with Jesus' teaching and following through the four Gospels, Acts, Paul's epistles and further, Dr. Errico presents a unique and variant approach in exploring such topics as: How accurate is the book of Acts? After the resurrection, did the apostles remain in Jerusalem or return to Galilee? Where did the phenomenon of speaking in tongues first occur for the followers of Jesus? What happened in the First century to the Fifth? Was the Christian movement ever totally unified?

THE GREAT EXPECTATION $14.95 (11.96)

Romans 8:19 (Aramaic Peshitta Text, Lamsa Translation) reads: “For the earnest expectation of all humankind waits for the manifestations of the sons of God.” What is the meaning of this great expectation? Who are the sons of God? Was Jesus God in the flesh? What does it mean to believe in God? Is baptism necessary? Dr. Errico speaks on these and many more important questions in this inspiring talk.

THE MYSTERIES OF EDEN: WHAT REALLY HAPPENED IN EDEN? $29.95 (23.96)

Because of this biblical narrative, women have been vilified, blamed for the downfall of humanity, and made subject to male dominance. Was Satan present in the form of a serpent when he tempted the first couple? Why did God forbid Adam from eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil? What is the meaning of the Tree of Life? The biblical account of the Garden of Eden is a Near Eastern, Semitic, symbolic, and metaphoric depiction of what continually happens to humanity. In these three talks Dr. Errico presents a clear, simple rendering of the Adam and Eve story from the Aramaic/Hebrew languages that unlock Eden’s mysteries and reveals the narratives practical meaning and application for us in this age.

MESSAGES FROM THE CHURCH OF THE NEAR EAST (2 half hour TV Interviews) $14.95 (11.96)

In these unusual TV interviews, Dr. Errico answers questions on the basics of the Aramaic approach, giving examples of Near Eastern culture and customs and scriptural differences in the Aramaic translation. In the first interview Dr. Errico discusses his background in the ministry , how his interest in Aramaic began, and meeting and working with Dr. Lamsa. He delves into many biblical mistranslations and explains some of the idiomatic expressions and Aramaic meaning of words. In the second interview Dr. Errico focuses particularly on Women and the Bible, especially on how Paul’s Epistles have been misunderstood, and distinguishes between theology and tradition. This is a wonderful DVD for yourself as well as to introduce friends and family to Dr. Errico’s teachings on the Aramaic Scriptures.

(✪ NEW ITEM ✪) MYSTICISM, THE BIBLE & ANCIENT MESOPOTAMIAN MYTHS

In this DVD recording of the class that Dr. Errico presented in Costa Mesa, California, on April 1, 2017 he teaches a condensed version of what he covered in depth in the CD album “The Bible & Ancient Mesopotamian Myths: Creation and the Garden of Eden (see “CD Albums-Old Testament”) about ancient Mesopotamian myths and Chapters 1, 2, and 3 of Genesis. Dr. Errico ends this class by reading his own translation of Chapter 4 — the story of Cain and Abel.

WHAT IS GOD? $14.95 (11.96)

“When we deeply want to understand ourselves, we must begin to see God. When God wants to see itself, God must see us,” says Dr. Errico. But, what is God? In ancient Semitic languages, a name reveals something very distinct about that personality. The same holds true for the divine names of God and especially the name Yah (Yahweh). When we explore the Divine Presence we call God, we are searching out ourselves in a new light. In this fascinating seminar, Dr. Errico not only searches out God as presented by the scribes of the Bible but also the God of the Individual Self, delving into such topics as: The Origin of God, What God Is, What Are We? Where Are We? The Meaning of Being, What Is Our Purpose?

GEORGE M. LAMSA, Th.D.

George M. Lamsa, Th.D., a renowned native Assyrian scholar of the Holy Bible, translator, lecturer, ethnologist and author, was born August 5, 1892, in a civilization with customs, manners and language almost identical to those in the time of Jesus. His native tongue was full of similar idioms and parables, untouched by the outside world in 1900 years. Until World War 1, his people living in that part of the ancient biblical lands that today is known as Kurdistan, in the basin of the rivers Tigris and Euphrates, retained the simple nomadic life as in the days of the Hebrew patriarchs. Only at the beginning of the 20th century did the isolated segment of the once great Assyrian Empire learn of the discovery of America and the Reformation in Germany.

Lamsa's formal education and studies began under the priests and deacons of the ancient Church of the East. Later he graduated with the highest honors ever bestowed from the Archbishop of Canterbury's Colleges in Iran and in Turkey, with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He spoke eight languages, and his lowest grade in any subject as 99. Lamsa never married but dedicated his life to "God's calling."

After arriving in the United States in his early 20s, Lamsa worked by day as a printer and went to school at night. He later studied at the Episcopal Theological Seminary in Alexandria, Virginia, and at Dropsie College in Philadelphia. It was through his struggles, during these years, with the English idioms that Lamsa gradually launched into his "life's work" of translating the Holy Bible from Aramaic into English. Yet many years were to pass before the world received his translations.

First as a lecturer in churches and seminaries, in halls and auditoriums, before statesmen, theologians, groups of artists, actors and others, Lamsa received recognition as a poet-philosopher and as an authority on all phases of Near Eastern civilization. It was his own inner compulsion, and the urging of hundreds who heard him, that drove him forward and brought about—after 30 years of labor, research and study—his translation of the Holy Bible from a branch of the ancient Aramaic language that the earliest Christians used.

It was Lamsa's firm belief that his translation from Aramaic would bring people closer to the Word of God and would facilitate understanding between the East and the West. For forty years, he produced commentaries and many other works based on the Aramaic language. The last ten years of his life, Dr. Lamsa tutored and prepared Dr. Rocco A. Errico to continue with the Aramaic approach to Scripture. He left this earthly life on September 22, 1975, in Turlock, California.
